

Indications That You May Need Online Stewardship

- Lack of timely or understandable reports
- The budget won't balance or is being ignored
- Unusual expenditures by staff or volunteers who have access to the finances
- No one is quite sure where all of the money is going
- A bookkeeper or treasurer who is overly protective of his or her job, perhaps treating the treasury as if it were his or her own, rather than being the steward they were called to be
- Constant chaos or crisis, so that no regular deadlines are met or patterns established
- Employees who prefer to work outside normal working hours, or who take work home with them
- The receipt of unpleasant IRS letters
